

Carla Harryman & Jon Raskin

Carla Harryman poet and Jon Raskin musician render Harryman's Cloud Cantata and in-progress "Scales for the Living" in variations of speaking, singing, and musical interpretations. These dialogue poems respond to domestic companionship and televised bubble, dreamscapes and slant trouble, war, immigration catastrophe (de) realization, troubled waters, historical circumspection, and whatever occurs in the liminal mind or neighborhood of pandemic time.

Jon and Carla have been doing poetry and music collaborations for twenty years. Open Box, an experiment in music-text collaboration by Harryman and Raskin appeared on the Tzadik label in 2012.
